

From: Susan Long [mailto:slong@DUI-Online.com]
Sent: Friday, March 25, 2005 10:53 AM
To: MLPA Comments
Cc: Jesus Ruiz
Subject: MLPAComments: Comments

Dear Sir or Madam,

Marine reserves should be close enough so that recreational divers can go out on a dive boat and dive them. There is no conflict between marine reserves close to access points and recreational fishing.

Marine reserves are good for the economy and will allow spill-over for fisherman to fish from providing a benefit for non-consumptive recreation as well as for recreational fishing.

Susan Long
President & CEO
Diving Unlimited International, Inc.
San Diego, California USA
619.236.1203 800.325.8439
www.DUI-Online.com

---

This transmission is confidential and intended for the addressee only. If you are not the intended recipient and have received this message in error, please delete it and immediately notify the sender. The opinions in this message do not necessarily represent the views of Diving Unlimited International, Inc. (DUI).

DUI scans all incoming and outgoing messages for viruses and we advise that this e-mail and its attachments should be re-scanned to detect viruses. As such, DUI accepts no liability for loss or damage resulting from this e-mail or any of its attachments.